

English Planning and Ideas

Week Commencing: 05.10.20 and 12.10.20

Year Group: 1/2

In school we are using the story Back to Earth with a Bump in our English lessons. It's about a boy who travels into space at night to look for the sun. The story PowerPoint has been uploaded so you can read the story at home. Below are some activities that are linked to the story. There are also some activities linked to reading, phonics and spelling, punctuation and grammar. Each day, choose one activity to complete. Any resources that you might need for the activities are included.

Story Sequencing Cut out the pictures from the story and put them in order of what happened. Can you write a sentence to describe what happened in each picture?	Handwriting Have a go at completing one of the handwriting sheets.	Postcard from Space Imagine you are Hal from the story. Write a postcard home to describe what you have done and what you have seen.	Sun Facts In the story, Hal looks for the Sun. What do you know about the Sun? Use books or the internet to find out about the Sun and write some facts.	New Planet Use the sheet to design your own new planet. What will it look like? Who might live there?	Thought Bubbles What Hal was travelling through space, what do you think he was thinking? Use the thought bubbles to write down some things that he might have thought. Eg: Where is the Sun?
Alien Questions Imagine you have travelled into space like Hal in the story. If you met an alien, what would you ask it? Write some questions that you might ask. Don't forget to use a question mark.	Year 1 SPaG Complete the attached sheet to practice Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar activities.	Year 2 SPaG Complete the attached sheet to practice Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar activities.	Stick Puppets Use the stick puppet templates to retell the story.	Reading Comprehension Try the reading comprehension sheets to show your understanding of the story. Remember you can ask an adult to help you if you get stuck.	Phonics There are lots of online games that you can play to help you with phonics. These websites are some that you can use. www.phonicsbloom.com www.phonicsplay.co.uk www.letters-and-sounds.com
