

The Mezuzah

In the Jewish religion, there are many special signs and symbols that remind Jewish people of their faith and the presence of God in their lives.

We all have special possessions and items that remind us of different things. These could be a reminder of a member of our family, a friend or a special day/event that we remember, such as a birthday or a holiday.

Task

Think about a special possession that is important to you. Write about why this item is important. Use some of these words to help you:

special	possession	present	gift	precious	holiday
memories	memento	important	happy	joyful	funny
sad	remember	reminder	emotions	feelings
